

EXTENSION NO. 2
EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 2023-01
HURRICANE IDALIA

WHEREAS, on Saturday, August 26, 2023, Governor Ron DeSantis issued Executive Order No. 23-171 declaring a state of emergency for several counties in the State of Florida, including Sarasota County, for Invest 93L (n/k/a Hurricane Idalia); and

WHEREAS, on Monday, August 28, 2023, the City Manager of the City of Venice enacted Executive Order No. 2023-01 declaring a Local State of Emergency and activating the City of Venice Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan to take certain measures in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare from the imminent danger of Hurricane Idalia; and

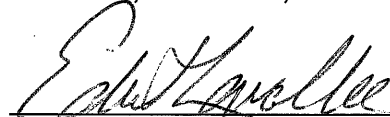

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 252.38, Florida Statutes, the limitation of an emergency declaration is seven (7) days, which may be extended in seven (7) day increments as necessary; and

WHEREAS, following the landfall of Hurricane Idalia the recovery period is expected to continue for an undefined period of time and conditions still exist requiring the extension of the initial Declaration.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Edward Lavalée, City Manager of the City of Venice, in accordance with the provisions of the State of Florida Office of the Governor Executive Order No. 23-171, Section 252.38, Florida Statutes, and Venice Executive Order No. 2023-01, hereby promulgate the following extension to the initial Declaration:

1. A Local State of Emergency continues to exist within the City of Venice due to Hurricane Idalia.
2. The initial Declaration of Local State of Emergency signed on August 28, 2023 and extended on 9/1/2023 is hereby extended for a period of seven (7) days.
3. As a result of this extension, the Declaration of Local State of Emergency extends continuously from Monday, August 28, 2023, through Sunday, September 17, 2023, inclusive.

DONE AND ORDERED this 8th day of September 2023, at Venice, Florida.

Edward F. Lavalée, City Manager
City of Venice, Florida
